

Announcements and Reminders

November 23, 2016

In This Issue

1. Proposal Deadline Extension
2. Scholarships
3. Albricias
4. NSE & NPE Registration
5. Portuguese Opportunities

Membership

Your 2016 AATSP membership will expire December 31, 2016. To avoid having your account suspended, please renew your 2017 membership now.

Election Results

Please join us in congratulating the new 2017-2019 AATSP Board of Directors.

AATSP Store

Click here to place your orders with the AATSP Store. As a reminder, you will need to have submitted your student inductee names on the AATSP website prior to ordering official SHH merchandise.

Proposal Deadline Extended

The AATSP Call for Proposal deadline has been extended through November 30, 2016. The 2017 conference strands include heritage learners, articulation and languages for specific purposes.

Click here for more information and to submit a proposal for the 2017 conference in Chicago, Illinois, July 6-9, 2017.

Scholarship Information and Deadlines

Applications will be accepted for the 2017 AATSP Scholarships and Travel Stipends through December 31, 2016. Click here to view the different opportunities available and for application information.

The Sociedad Honoraria Hispánica Junior Travel Award and Senior Scholarship deadline is December 15, 2016. Click here for detailed application information and application forms.

Albricias

November issue of Albricias is now online

The November issue of Albricias, the student journal of the SHH, is now available online! The issue is published in full color and contains creative and scholarly works from students representing 47 SHH chapters. Click here to view.

Albricias Submission Deadline

The deadline for submitting student work for the March 2017 issue of Albricias is December 1, 2016. The theme is "Salvador Dalí y el surrealismo." Click here for more information or contact David Wiseman (editor.shh@aatsp.org) with any questions.

NSE and NPE Registration

The National Spanish and Portuguese Examinations registration will continue through January 31, 2016. Please be sure to renew your 2017 membership prior to registering for the exam.

Portuguese Opportunities

Middlebury Portuguese School accepting admissions and fellowship applications

- Full scholarships are available for intensive language study at the Middlebury Summer Language Schools. The Kathryn Davis Fellows for Peace scholarship will cover the cost for one summer of language study (tuition, room and board) from beginning to advanced level. Deadline is December 15, 2016. Click here for application details.
- Middlebury School of Portuguese is offering three classes in Portuguese to earn 9 credit-hours at the 7-week immersion program. Click here for information.

NEWL offering a professional development seminar

The National Examinations in World Languages (NEWL) is thrilled to announce that College Board has endorsed their new suite of online proficiency examinations in Portuguese. NEWL is conducting a Professional Development Seminar for teachers to make sure your students are prepared. The seminar will take place in Washington D.C. on February 11-12, 2017. Click here to register now and for complete information.

Call for Papers - Portuguese Language Journal

You are invited to submit manuscripts in both Portuguese and English in word format to info@portugueselanguagejournal.com

Include the following information in your submission:

- Authors names, institutions and email addresses
- 200 word abstract in both Portuguese and English
- A brief biographical statement of each author (200 words or less)
- Article submissions should be at least 8,000 words but no more than 10,000 words in length
- Review submissions should be at least 750 words but no more than 1,000
- Deadline: February 1, 2017