United Nations Essay Contest for College/University Students

ELS Educational Services, Inc. and the United Nations Academic Impact global initiative are working together again to support the positive impact of multilingualism through the Many Languages, One World - Student Essay Competition and Youth Forum. Many Languages, One World is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for talented college/university students to present their perspective and opinions at the General Assembly of the United Nations Headquarters in New York City. This year's essay topic asks students to research and reflect on the proposed sustainability goals of the United Nations post-2015 global development agenda. Ten winners will be selected from each languages group of the six official languages of the United Nations (Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Spanish, and Russian) with an additional ten chosen on merit from the remaining entries in all languages for a total of 70 winners in honor of the 70th year of the United Nations. ELS Educational Services, Inc. will award each winners with an all-expense paid trip to New York during the week of July 20-26, 2015.

The deadline for essay submissions is 11:59pm Eastern Time on Wednesday March 25, 2015.
