Thank you to Anne Rock and Jan Hayden for timing the races. Thank you to all the boaters for attending and assisting with river safety/pole retrieval/gate judging.

Thank you to Ed Hayden for hosting the National Championships. Thank you to Doug Ebeling for providing the website.

Thank you to Bill and Denise Micks and the Virginia Outdoor Center for providing the wonderful accommodations and hospitality near the old Embrey Dam Site on the Rappahannock River.

Thank you to Chris Stec, Kasey Kaplan, Kirk Havens et al from the ACA for the support you provided.

At the National meeting on Friday, May 29, 2009, a new traveling trophy was unveiled. The Ed Hayden Poling Cup will be presented to the combined winner of the Intermediate Slalom and Wildwater races similar to the Combined Century Cup for the Open and the Max Lambert Cup for the Masters.

Next year's National Championships will be held on the Westfield River, in Westfield, Massachusetts, hosted by Harry Rock, date to be announced.

See you standing tall on the river,
Scott Stepenuck
