

TRAVEL GRANTS FOR ASA ANNUAL MEETING

IRENE H. CHAYES TRAVEL FUND: Commencing in 2018, the Annual Meeting will award three travel grants of $1,250 each to support travel to the annual meeting for persons with papers accepted for the program who have no other access to travel funds at their institution(s) during the academic year.

To be eligible for a travel grant from these funds:

- You must be a member of ASA in good standing in the calendar year of the paper presentation and you must register for the meeting.
- Eligible persons include faculty members (including lecturers, adjuncts, and part-timers) and independent scholars.
- If you have some access to travel funds from your institution, but prefer to use it for a different meeting, you are not eligible for a Chayes Travel Grant this year.

To apply for a travel grant this year:

- Submit your paper as you normally would by the announced deadline of January 15, 2018
- Do not include any mention of the Chayes fund in your paper or abstract.
- In the new paper submission system, indicate separately that you wish to be considered for a Chayes travel grant, if your paper is accepted, and explain briefly why you are eligible.

The program committee will make the final decisions on which persons receive a Chayes travel grant. If more than three persons with accepted papers are eligible, the committee will decide which, based on merit, programmatic, and diversity priorities, should get the awards

STUDENT TRAVEL GRANTS: All full-time students with papers accepted for the program will receive a travel grant of $1,250 each to support travel to the annual meeting.

To be eligible for a student travel grant from these funds:

- You must be a member of ASA in good standing in the calendar year of the paper presentation and you must register for the meeting.
- You must be a full-time student when you submit the paper and when you present it.
- If you are a full-time student when you submit the paper, complete your degree, and are unemployed in the fall, you will retain the student travel grant for that meeting.

To apply for a student travel grant this year:

- Submit your paper as you normally would by the announced deadline of January 15, 2018
- Do not include any mention of your student status in your paper or abstract.
- In the new paper submission system, indicate separately that you wish to be awarded a student travel grant, if your paper is accepted, and state clearly why you are eligible; documentation may be required by ASA from your department.

ADDITIONAL TRAVEL SUPPORT: Travel support is provided by ASA for ASA Editors, Program Committee members, and prize winners. If you are eligible, you will be contacted by ASA with reimbursement claim forms. If you have questions about your eligibility, please contact secretary-treasurer@aesthetics-online.org
