

USAID
FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

African Evaluation Journal (Special Health Edition) Survey

African Evaluation Journal
Journal Africain d'Évaluation

Where theory meets practice in African Evaluation

Special Issue 2:
Health Evaluations
in Africa

OPEN ACCESS

www.aejonline.org

This issue features articles on evaluations conducted in different regions of Africa, authored by both emerging and seasoned evaluators. The launch of the African Evaluation Journal in 2014, followed by this special issue dedicated to health evaluations in Africa, is a testament to the growing importance and appreciation of evaluation on the continent and comes at an exciting time within the discipline of monitoring and evaluation.

This issue was supported by the African Strategies for Health project (ASH), funded by the United States Agency for International Development's (USAID) Bureau for Africa and implemented by Management Sciences for Health (MSH) and its partner, Khulisa Management Services.

Dear African Evaluation Journal reader,

Please take a brief moment to fill in the below survey about the African Evaluation Journal (AEJ)'s Special Health Edition

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/?sm= 2Fe 2FY X9XyTLZkomzfg9D 2BhA 3D 3D>

AfrEA in collaboration with USAID, the African Strategies for Health project (ASH) and Khulisa Management Services, launched the special edition at the SAMEA Conference on 14 October 2015. It focusses solely on health evaluations in Africa.

Read the articles at:

<http://www.aejonline.org/index.php/aej>

The Journal has now reached 100 000 downloads since 2013 – an indication of its relevance to the evaluation discipline. We encourage you to keep using it for research and referencing purposes.