

Information provided in this example is meant to be used as a general template for scholarship/grant applications. As an applicant, by following this template, you are assisting in making our application assessment more efficient. This is a fictional applicant and does not represent a real person.

Sample Cover Page:

John Doe

12-12-12

Purpose Statement:

I am applying for a Professional Development Grant to attend a Kagan instructional workshop on differentiated instruction in New Orleans on 02-14-13.

Sample Rubric Essay Page(s):

Note: The essay may be up to 500 words in length.

Impact on the Profession:

The Kagan strategies that I will learn at this have established results in improving student learning and motivation. These methods will improve me as a teacher and impact my students.

Professional Collaboration:

I agree to submit a written summary of my experiences to A+PEL. I will also offer to present this information to my fellow faculty members or at an A+PEL meeting.

Longevity:

The knowledge gained through this workshop may permanently change the way I teach and therefore impact a significant number of students throughout my teaching career.

A+PEL Membership Involvement:

I am a former member of the A+PEL board of directors, and continue to serve A+PEL at the district level.