ATMAE Career Builder

ATMAE is working hard to provide you with the value you want from us. As you can see from the survey below most of you want ATMAE to help you find the right job. Here's the thing – WE CAN DO THAT FOR YOU! We just need you to stay involved. How do you start? Link up with us on social media so you can find out what activities there are for students. They are constantly changing and growing in number. Each of our activities are designed to provide you with links to industry, opportunities to demonstrate your capabilities, and situations where you can improve your marketability. Whether it's our free webinar, the numerous student competitions we are creating, or even the opportunity to demonstrate your knowledge through our certification program, ATMAE can help you find the job you are dreaming about!

ATMAE Student Member Survey and Results

ATMAE is always looking for new ways to connect to technologists and applied engineering emerging professionals. In an effort to gain better insight into your career plans and create initiatives that better fit your needs and desires as students, ATMAE administered a short survey this past winter. Here is what you told us!
