

AZVMA EDUCATIONAL ADVENTURE

RAFT THE COLORADO RIVER THROUGH THE GRAND CANYON SEPTEMBER 10-16, 2017

We are proud to announce our speaker, Dr. Pedro Boscan of Colorado State University.

Dr. Boscan obtained his DVM degree in 1996 from a veterinary school in Barquisimeto, Venezuela. After a small animal anesthesia internship at Utrecht University, Netherlands, he did his neuroscience MSc at University of Andalucia (Spain) with a strong emphasis on pain processing. Dr. Boscan obtained his PhD at University of Bristol, UK and concentrated his efforts in studying the CNS integration of pain, cardiovascular and respiratory systems. After his PhD, he returned to veterinary medicine and did an anesthesia residency at UC Davis. Dr. Boscan worked as an anesthesia clinical fellow for 1 year at UC Davis and then accepted an assistant professor position at Colorado State University. Since 2006, he has been a faculty member at CSU (anesthesia department) with a current position as Associate Professor.

Topics will include multiple topics using a case based approach covering 1-2 cases per evening (weather and time permitting).

AZVMA EDUCATIONAL ADVENTURE

The Arizona Veterinary Medical Association is excited to announce an educational adventure! This continuing education event is a private raft trip, 7 days, 6 nights, from Lee's Ferry to Upper Lake Mead, featuring hiking, fishing, camping, exploring Indian ruins, great food and incomparable scenery. The meeting will provide 8 hours of continuing education. The speaker will be Dr. Pedro Boscan of Colorado State University, sessions will include multiple topics using a case base approach covering 1-2 cases per evening (weather and time permitting).

This private trip, hosted by Canyoneers ("All the Grand", www.canyoneers.com), will be limited to 20 veterinarians and companions. The cost for the river trip itself including continuing education is expected to be about $2975. Additional costs for attendees include a one-night hotel stay (orientation September 9, 2017) before the trip, gratuities and national park admission.

For more information, or to register, contact Elaine Chambers DVM, drelainec@gmail.com, 928-776-4182, 928-899-6474 cell. Travel insurance is recommended, as no cancellations can be made unless replacement attendees are found. This trip will be filled on a first come first serve basis! A deposit of $500 is required to hold a space; the balance is due in spring of 2017.
