

Welcome

In 1962 real estate professionals chartered the Centre County Board of REALTORS®, following guidelines set in 1908, by the founding organization, the National Association of Real Estate Exchange . . . “For the support and benefit, of its members and the community at large.”

In 1993, the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® approved the request to rename the Centre County Board of REALTORS® to the Centre County Association of REALTORS®.

Of great importance, the designation REALTOR® is not a synonym for a “real estate broker” or “licensee”, but rather a registered trademark which identifies a real estate professional who is a member of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® and bound by its strict Code of Ethics.

A REALTOR® is automatically affiliated with the Pennsylvania Association of REALTORS® (PAR) and the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® (NAR) – the world’s largest professional trade association. Through this collective membership, REALTORS® are the “Voice for Real Estate”, promoting the private ownership of real property and the free enterprise system.

Membership Benefits

Through the Centre County Association of REALTORS®, local REALTORS® receive the benefits of membership in a statewide and national organization. Some of the Business Partner Membership Benefits and Options are noted inside this brochure

Opportunities For Business Partner Members

The Centre County Association of REALTORS® welcomes the business community to become an integral part of the organization as Business Partners. All Business Partner members are invited to utilize the services available through the local Association and are encouraged to participate in the REALTOR® social activities, as well as to attend all educational seminars.

The Association welcomes input from Business Partner members who over the years have generously provided their valuable insight and expertise into real estate issues. Opportunity to hear from Business Partner members as speakers at membership meetings and to network at the various educational and social events has proved invaluable, as well.

You will soon find that your participation will create an increased sense of belonging and will multiply the benefits you receive from the Association. People that you meet through the Association will become contacts, mentors, supporters and friends now and for the future.
