500 Miles of Brotherhood

by Guest Blogger Chris Corriveau, ΔΔ'12

If you find yourself at an institution for higher learning near the Pacific, the chances that you are near a Lodge are rather slim. Despite the abundance of quality schools lining the West Coast, Chi Psi maintains a presence at only three, none of which are located in the same state. Despite the hundreds of miles separating our Alphas, we on the West Coast maintain healthy relations across state boundaries.

This April, dozens of Brothers from Alpha Delta Delta and Alpha Theta Delta descend upon the University of Oregon for this year's Rowe Regional Conference. This annual gathering is an opportunity for us to exchange ideas, share memories, and collaborate with each other around our common bond in Chi Psi. Read more...
