

Christopher S. Young, Esq.

Chris Young is the current Recording Secretary of the Commercial Law League, and the Vice Chair of the Eastern District.

Chris is the managing member of the Business & Technology Law Group (“BTLG”). BTLG is a Maryland general business law firm, with a focus on commercial litigation, for entrepreneurs and small to mid-size organizations.

Chris’ legal practice is concentrated in business litigation and general counsel to business management. As a litigator, Chris has represented clients at every level of Maryland’s court system, and in Maryland’s Federal courts.

Chris is a member of the Maryland bar, and the bar of Maryland’s Federal courts. Chris received a B.A. degree from the University of Maryland, and a J.D. from the University of Baltimore, School of Law. He is a former adjunct professor at the University of Maryland, Baltimore County (UMBC) where he taught business law.

Active in both his profession and community, Chris has taken leadership positions on numerous boards, at Inns of Court, and with bar associations, including the Maryland State Bar Association, where he currently sits on the Ethics Committee. As a partner with Howard County Public Schools, Chris has been a mentor to gifted and talented students, working with high school mock trial teams. He was appointed by Maryland Governor Larry Hogan to sit on the Trial Courts Judicial Nominating Committee.
