

ELIZABETH STOCKER, AICP
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT DIRECTOR – CITY OF NORWALK, CT

Elizabeth Stocker is the Economic Development Director for the City of Norwalk, Connecticut having joined the Norwalk Redevelopment Agency and Mayor Harry Rilling’s staff in August of 2014. Ms. Stocker is responsible for managing Norwalk’s economic development program which includes business attraction, business retention and expansion and marketing Norwalk, the Sound of Connecticut to prospective businesses, visitors, and residents.

Ms. Stocker has a long career in municipal economic development. Ms. Stocker worked for Town of Newtown for many years, served as president of the Connecticut Economic Development Association (CEDAS) for two terms, worked for the Town of Hamden and even held a prior planning position for the City of Norwalk.

Ms. Stocker holds a Master of Urban Planning degree from New York University and a Bachelor of Science degree in Natural Resources Conservation from the University of Connecticut.