

MARK ADAMS

NATIONAL REAL ESTATE PROJECT DELIVERY TEAM – PRICEWATERHOUSECOOPERS, LLP

A subject matter expert in the field of Capital Project and Program Management; Mark is a member of the PricewaterhouseCoopers, LLP National Real Estate Project Delivery Team charged with managing a portfolio of Corporate Office builds on a national scale.

Professionally, Mark started his career serving in the United States Air Force where he was the Owner's Representative for the Air Force on their construction and infrastructure projects across the globe.

After leaving the Air Force, Mark went to work with Whiting-Turner (WT) Contracting, Co, a top 25 ENR nationally ranked Construction Management firm. At WT, Mark started as a Superintendent working in the field managing trade contractors on projects valued up to $500M before advancing his skill sets in Project Management. Mark's projects were in the industries of: Life Sciences (R&D, Pharmaceutical, and Hospitals), Retail, Post-secondary Institutions, and Public sectors.

After WT, Mark went to Alexion Pharmaceuticals Global Real Estate and Facilities Management group to serve as their Director of Global Capital Project Management. At Alexion, Mark's responsibility was strategic in cultivating a global life science portfolio of projects and developing and facilitating a structured Capital Program.

Educationally, Mark possesses a:

- MBA from the University of Connecticut in Management and Real Estate Finance
- MS from Central Connecticut State University in Construction Management
- BS from University of New Haven in Civil Engineering
- Project Management Professional (PMP) Certification from the Project Management Institute.

Mark resides in Oxford, CT with his family and is a proud member of the Military Veteran community.