

Organization name	Email	Do you have something you can offer to assist other organizations? If so, what can you offer?
CFCArts	russell@cfcarts.com	YES. We have several small rooms that are open and available as workspaces.
Emotions Dance	larissa@emotionsdance.org	classes or space to rehearse
Enzian Theater	davidschiller@enzian.org	An air conditioned movie theater, that serves food and beverage.
Global Peace Film Festival	nina@peacefilmfest.org	We are happy to offer free tickets for films in the festival next week to nonprofit organizations, especially (but not limited to) anyone doing any kind of relief work. Everyone needs to take a break, and we will have seats to fill that otherwise would have been sold... Note: the GPFF is always about resilience and community. Now is a good time to reflect on that.
Opera OrIndo	Office@operaorlando.org	We have volunteers that can help with cleanup - We don't have any equipment.
Orlando Gay Chorus	carol@orlandogaychorus.org	Outreach performances.
Arbor School of Central Florida	wendy.blair@arborschoolflorida.com	We do have power, water and internet and are willing to share space if need be
Conductive Education Center of Orlando	rjohnson@ceco.org	We have power and wifi and can easily be a co-working space.
Jack and Lee Rosen JCC	joelb@rosenjcc.org	We can offer cell phone charging and a place for people to have air conditioning
Lake Sumter Children's Advocacy Center	diane@cac4kids.org	Crisis counseling for children experiencing trauma related to the storm.
Legal Aid Society of the Orange County Bar Association, Inc.	mdepetrillo@aol.com	legal services for low income clients

NAMI greater orlando	eric.welch@namigo.org	Mental health support groups. Resources on managing stress and anxiety.
The Christian Sharing Center	angie.romagosa@thesharingcenter.org	We have food, water and hot showers
Victim Service Center of Central Florida, Inc.	Lui.Damiani@VictimServiceCenter.org	We provide advocacy, crisis intervention and therapy services to victims of violent crime, sexual assault and other traumatic circumstances. We operate a 24/7 Helpline and provide face-to-face services to anyone that may have been triggered or impacted by the hurricane.
Women's Center	jgessler@womenscenter.net	We have thrift stores, so we can offer furniture etc. to those in need.
Central Florida Zoo & Botanical Gardens	dinof@centralfloridazoo.org	n/a
Energy Florida, Inc.	michael.aller@energyflorida.org	Experience with state and federal disaster relief programs & application process(es)
The first Tee of Central Florida	tlawrence@thefirstteecfl.org	Manpower
Mad Cow Theatre	mitzim@madcowtheatre.com	Daytime use of our space for meetings. Tickets for organizations looking for something extra to give employees to brighten their day.
The Center for Contemporary Dance	craig@thecenterfordance.org	Consulting services in brand management/marketing and space to temporarily host dance or music classes.
ELEVATE Orlando	jpatterson@elevateorlando.org	Volunteers
Winter Park Day Nursery	exec@wpcdaynursery.org	We have a few available spaces in our Pre-k program for any children who may have attended a school that has not yet been able to re-open.
New Beginnings of Central Florida	shannon@nbcfl.org	We do have electricity back on and some space in our residential programs so other homeless programs can refer clients to our program still.
Second Harvest Food Bank of Central Florida	dkrepcho@feedhopenow.org	We have a supply of MREs (with more to come), and will be building family boxes for emergency food providers in the coming weeks.
HOPE Helps, Inc.	joan@hopehelps.org	We have hundreds of volunteers who, if called to action, can help assist in many ways.

Holocaust Memorial Resource	pkancher@holocaustedu.org	cool space to work
Florida School of Holistic Living	nina@holisticlivingschool.org	Entry to classes.
Sumter Sunshine Community	ellen@sumterfoundation.org	A generator, water