

FEDERATION of CREDIT and FINANCIAL PROFESSIONALS

Training and Best Practices for the Credit Practitioner

Dear FCFP member:

In line with its mission to provide members with information, tools and best practices designed to create greater efficiencies in managing the order-to-cash process. The Federation of Credit and Financial Professionals has attached the Credit Research Foundation 2nd quarter News Letter.

In addition, the Credit Research Foundation (CRF) has made available to our FCFP members on-line courses at a discounted rate. The proctored courses will begin in August 2017 and some in September 2017.

For more information about the on-line courses, visit the FCFP website at: www.federationofcredit.com and click on the "Education Tab".

FCFP expresses its sincere appreciation to the Credit Research Foundation for its educational content partnership.

We would also encourage FCFP members to express their appreciation if the occasion might arise. Look for more CRF offerings with special pricing for Federation of Credit members to come in the near future.

As always, as an owner/member of FCFP, your input is encouraged. Please share your thoughts on this Newsletter as well as thoughts and ideas on what FCFP might do to enhance its value to the credit and accounts receivable professional. I may be reached at yalvarez@federationofcredit.com
