

FOLK ALLIANCE INTERNATIONAL OFFICIAL HOUSE CONCERT PRESENTER AGREEMENT

This agreement between Folk Alliance International (FAI) and the House Concert Presenter listed below is only intended to establish that this Presenter is in fact, presenting House Concerts utilizing the guidelines set forth by FAI, ASCAP, and BMI and is a member in good standing in the Folk Alliance International organization. There are no fees, other than FAI membership, attached to this agreement.

Presenter will either display the official FAI House Concert logo on their website or keep a copy of this executed agreement to confirm your affiliation with FAI if contacted regarding PRO licensing for your concerts. Any and all PRO inquiries can be directed to the Folk Alliance International office.

Please read the requirements then fill in the requested information below, sign, and return to FAI.

House Concert Rules and Regulations:

1. Performance is in a private home
2. Performance is by invitation only*
 - a. *the intent of the "invitation only" regulation is that a person cannot just come without some connection to the presenter or artist (i.e. a "wide circle of family and friends") The details of that compliance might include but not be limited to 1) not publicly displaying your address 2) "by invitation only" or "call for invitation" on all information accessible to the public (i.e. website, flyers)

I have read the House Concert Rules and Regulations and I agree to the conditions set forth by FAI, ASCAP, and BMI in regards to the House Concert series listed below.
