

A court administrator is defined as a person, regardless of job title or classification, serving in an administrative or management capacity for an Indiana court or judicial body who is interested in the improvement of the administration of justice.

Requirements for court administrator membership are:

1. Meet the definition of a court administrator; and
2. Be at least twenty-two (22) years of age; and
3. Be of a good moral character; and
 - a). Not have been suspended or disbarred from the practice of law in any state; and
 - b). Not have been convicted of an unauthorized practice of law in any state; and
 - c). Not be currently under suspension, termination or revocation of a certification, registration or license to practice by a professional organization, court, disciplinary board, or agency in any jurisdiction; and
4. Membership dues for licensed attorneys will be at the rate of other licensed attorneys.
5. Inactive Status. Court administrators who do not meet the definition of court administrator because of a temporary interruption in employment as a court administrator may maintain “inactive” status. Court administrators in inactive status may participate in all Indiana State Bar Association activities as active court administrator affiliate members. Court administrators may not continue in inactive status for longer than three consecutive years.
