

4 Free Sections as a Law Student Member

Whether you plan to practice in Elkhart, Bedford, Avon or anywhere else in Indiana, a student membership in the Indiana State Bar Association has much to offer you. Student members have full access to the many benefits and resources of the 12,000+ member organization, including membership in four sections. These sections are active year round and include many of the state's top lawyers, who share their insight through section newsletters, meetings, and forums. Attending section programs offers valuable opportunities to network and learn from leading lawyers in nearly any area of practice.
