

Meet ITAA's Graduate Student Liaison for 2017

Rachel LoMonaco-Benzing has been elected Graduate Student Liaison to the ITAA Council for 2017. Rachel is a Ph.D. student in Textile and Apparel Management at University of Missouri-Columbia. She completed her M.S. in Textiles, Fashion Merchandising and Design at University of Rhode Island. As the Graduate Student Liaison, Rachel will serve as ITAA graduate student members' voice to Council.

Rachel will focus her efforts as GSL on continuing to connect graduate students to one another and to the organization through social media, newsletter articles and annual conference events. She also plans to bring renewed focus to mentoring and professional development opportunities to enable graduate students to succeed and become lifelong contributors to ITAA and the textile and apparel field.

Look for future graduate student news in upcoming newsletters and on the ITAA Graduate Student Facebook page.
