

Retail Merchandising

The primary function of this position is teaching, research, and service. Specific duties and responsibilities include: teach undergraduate courses in at least three of the following areas: fashion industry, fashion merchandising, product development, retail technologies, global issues in apparel and textiles, and/or possible related areas which compliment other faculty members' expertise; advise undergraduate students; participate in curriculum development; engage in a quality research record, including grant writing; provide service to the department, college, university, and professional associations; participate in interdisciplinary work and university-community partnerships.

Professional qualifications include: Ph. D. (or equivalent) with at least one degree in apparel/retail merchandising, or related field; consideration may be given to ABD with imminent completion; evidence of or potential for high quality teaching; experience with computer technologies relating to apparel applications; significant productivity in research and grant writing or potential for same; demonstrated commitment to building interdisciplinary university-community partnerships; evidence of excellent communication skills in oral and written format; evidence of relevant professional/business experience.

Salary is competitive and commensurate with peer institution levels for rank and position. Effective Date of Employment: August 2017

A review of applications will begin January 31, 2017 and will continue until the position is filled.

A complete application/nomination package will contain a letter of application, curriculum vita, three references, and academic transcripts.

Send the Application/Nomination package by email to:

Dr. Maggie Sas, Chair FCS Search Committee
5 Bradley Hall
1501 W. Bradley Ave.
Peoria, IL 61625
(309) 677-2433
msas@fsmail.bradley.edu

Employment with Bradley University is contingent upon the satisfactory completion of a criminal background check.

Bradley University is a top-ranked, prestigious, private university in Peoria, Illinois, offering 5,400 undergraduate and graduate students the opportunities, choices and resources of a larger university and the personal attention and exceptional learning experience of a smaller university. Bradley offers a comprehensive array of undergraduate and graduate academic programs in business, communications, education, engineering, fine arts, health sciences, liberal arts and sciences, and technology. The University is located on an 85-acre campus in Peoria, the largest metropolitan area in Central Illinois.

The department offers six undergraduate programs in General FCS, FCS Education (secondary), Community Wellness, Dietetics, Hospitality Leadership, and Retail Merchandising and a graduated program in Dietetics and DI (MS/DI). The Programs are approved/accredited by NCATE and ACEND. For more additional information about Bradley University and the Department of Family and Consumer Sciences visit:

www.bradley.edu and www.bradley.edu/academics/ehs/fcs/.

Bradley University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. The administration, faculty and staff are committed to attracting qualified candidates from underrepresented groups.

APPLICATION INFORMATION

Postal Address:

Dr. Maggie Sas, Chair FCS Search Committee

Family and Consumer Science

Bradley University

1501 West Bradley Avenue

Peoria, IL 61625

Phone:

(309) 677-2433

Email Address:

msas@fsmail.bradley.edu