

Faculty Tenure Track – 9 Month/Assistant Professor
The Fashion School
[Job #998758]
Kent Campus – Kent, OH

The Fashion School at Kent State University seeks strong candidates for a full-time, 9-month, tenure-track Assistant Professor to support teaching and research initiatives in fashion design and merchandising, beginning Fall 2017.

The Fashion School offers outstanding state-of-the-art facilities for teaching and connecting with the fashion industry and alumni; the Fashion School Store, a live retail environment located in downtown Kent; the TechStyleLAB research/learning and commercial technology laboratory; direct partnership with the KSU Fashion Museum, housing nearly 40,000 pieces in their collection and eight fantastic exhibition spaces; an exceptional Fashion Library with trend/archival and trade resources; and the NYC Studio and Florence Italy campuses for semester-long study away experiences, plus a curricular partnership with the Paris American Academy. For more information on the school please visit our website: www.kent.edu/fashion.

Responsibilities:

- Teach courses to support the fashion design and merchandising undergraduate and graduate curricula
- Actively engage in research and disseminate outcomes via refereed venues
- Actively pursue the funding opportunities internally or externally to support one's research program
- Actively supervise undergraduate students for extracurricular competitions such as National Retail Federation (NRF), YMA Fashion Scholarship Fund, CFDA, etc.
- Develop and maintain up-to-date industry knowledge regarding fashion contexts
- Participate in School, College and University governance and committees
- Actively participate in professional organizations

Qualifications:

The applicant must:

- Hold a terminal degree (by start date for the tenure-track role) in fashion design, merchandising or related field
- Provide evidence of a strong teaching record at college level with abilities/interests in large format and lab/studio settings along with industry and pedagogical technologies
- Provide potential/evidence of scholarly activities

In addition to the above qualifications, experience with successful grantsmanship, supervising undergraduate/ graduate students in fashion design and merchandising, and/or prior industry employment/partnership experiences are strongly desirable.

Salary and Benefits:

Salary commensurate with qualifications and experience. Benefits include comprehensive insurance package (e.g., life, health, dental, and vision) and full tuition waiver for all employees and their direct family members.

To Apply:

All applicants must create an application online at: <https://jobs.kent.edu>. Applicants must also submit online a letter of application, curriculum vita, statement of teaching and research philosophy, teaching evaluation materials, and the names, addresses, and phone numbers of three references.
