

Director, Family and Consumer Sciences

Posting Information

Posting Information

Position Title	Director, Family and Consumer Sciences
Job Posting Number	20190001FAC
Job Location	San Marcos
Department	School of Family & Consumer Sciences
Position Description	The director is responsible for academic leadership in the School in its efforts to: recruit, retain, and evaluate diverse and distinguished faculty and promote their professional development; provide high quality instructional programs and maintain accreditations; provide grant activity and maximize quality scholarship; recruit and retain students; carry out strategic planning and budget preparation and execution; work with programs' leadership to approve and recommend curriculum and student degree programs; engage in some teaching; engage in service within the university; bolster the School's reputation both nationally and internationally; oversee the Child Development Center; and collaborate and work with the school advisory committees in fundraising and other development activities.
Required Qualifications	Earned doctorate in one of the following fields (Fashion Merchandising, Interior Design, Consumer Affairs, Nutrition, Family and Child Development) or a closely-related discipline served by Family and Consumer Sciences; have an academic record that merits appointment with tenure at the rank of associate professor or professor; minimum of ten years of college teaching experience; strong record of published research in refereed journals or comparable creative activity; experience in securing external funds; experience in administering academic programs; administrative experience in budgeting; experience in faculty mentoring/development; and experience with graduate programs. The successful applicant will receive the appropriate rank and title based on university and school established standards.
Preferred Qualifications	Evidence of excellence in teaching; experience in developing academic programs; experience with doctoral and international programs; leadership in national professional organization(s); experience working with diverse students and faculty; and familiarity with all the cognate areas in Texas State University's School of Family and Consumer Sciences.
Application Procedures	Only applications submitted through the Texas State University website will be accepted and considered, https://jobs.hr.txstate.edu/postings/21916 . To ensure full consideration for the position, online applications must be received by September 17, 2018. The committee will continue to accept applications until the position is filled. A complete application will consist of: a letter of interest that states how you meet the required and preferred qualifications; a current curriculum vitae; statements of administrative, scholarship, and teaching philosophies (one page max each); and a list of three to five references with phone numbers and email addresses. Prior to on-campus interviews candidates will need to provide complete graduate transcript(s), three letters of recommendation, student evaluations of instruction, and evidence of excellence in research and scholarly activity. The selected candidate will be required to provide official transcripts from all degree granting Universities.

Proposed Start Date Spring 2019

Open Date

Review Date 09/17/2018

Close Date

Open Until Filled? Yes

Legal Notices Texas State University, to the extent not in conflict with federal or state law, prohibits discrimination or harassment on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, sex, religion, disability, veterans' status, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression.

Employment with Texas State University is contingent upon the outcome of record checks and verifications including criminal history, driving records, education records, employment verifications, reference checks, and employment eligibility verifications.

Texas State University is a tobacco-free campus. Smoking and the use of any tobacco product will not be allowed anywhere on Texas State property or in university owned or leased vehicles.

Texas State University is a member of the Texas State University System. Texas State University is an EOE.