

West Virginia University
Visiting Professor – Apparel Design
School of Design and Community Development

Description

The School of Design and Community Development in the Davis College of Agriculture, Natural Resources and Design at West Virginia University is pleased to invite applications for a 4.5 month, Visiting Assistant Professor of Apparel Design to commence (non-benefits eligible, non-tenure-track) on January 1, 2017. The salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience. Additional information is available at <http://design.wvu.edu>.

Duties and Responsibilities

Teach the following undergraduate courses: 1) draping, 2) fashion design portfolio, 3) design concepts of dress (elements and principles of design with Photoshop and Power Point applications).

Application

Candidates must meet standard eligibility requirements to work in the United States and have demonstrated effective verbal and written communication skills in English. Please send the following documents: 1) letter of application that discusses qualifications for the position; 2) curriculum vitae, including a list of courses taught with dates; 3) portfolio of recent works; 4) contact information for three professional references. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Applicants may apply for the position at <http://jobs.wvu.edu>.

Direct inquiries to:

Professor Judith Wasserman, Director
judith.wasserman@mail.wvu.edu

Qualifications

Required: Ph.D., M.S., MFA or other terminal degree at time of employment, with at least one degree in textiles, apparel, and merchandising.

Preferred: Doctorate; Teaching experience; industry and/or business experience and connections; professional and/or academic memberships and involvement, experience with advanced digital visualization technologies.