

1990 ITAA Fellow – Esther Meacham

Esther A. Meacham, Professor Emeritus, The Ohio State University, is recognized for her consistent service, positive leadership, and active participation in ACPTC. She has shown commitment to her profession as both teacher and scholar. The excellence and innovation in her teaching is demonstrated in her television series. She is also recognized for her service, leadership, and participation in Omicron Nu.

In retirement, she moved to First Community Village in Columbus, OH, where she continued her artistic interests and activities. (1922-2006)