Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc. Congratulates Participants on the 20th Anniversary of the Million Man March

(Philadelphia, PA), September 22, 2015 – Thomas L. Battles, Jr., Grand Polemarch (President/CEO) of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc. announced that Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc. congratulates participants on the 20th anniversary celebration of the Million Man March, scheduled for October 10, 2015 in Washington, DC.

The Million Man March represented an opportunity for all citizens to avail themselves of their rights of speech, to call for the advancement of the well-being of all Americans, particularly those most in need.

Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity is dedicated to the achievement of its members and constituents in every field of human endeavor, and events focusing on upward mobility bring hope to all who strive for excellence.

Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc., as an organization of college-trained men, focuses its primary attention on the plight of African American boys, and has committed itself to the upward mobility of those who continually find themselves adversely affected by an uneven playing field. The Million Man March presents a forum for their story to be told. We salute all who will participate in this observance, and that the nation will reach out to embrace every American

As citizens from across America and beyond assemble on this anniversary, it is hoped that increasing numbers of African American men will be added to the workforce, and that children will be inspired to continue their education and training.
