LSMS INDUCTS PATRICK C. BREAUX, MD, OF NEW ORLEANS, INTO HALL OF FAME

BATON ROUGE, Louisiana—The Louisiana State Medical Society (LSMS) elected Patrick C. Breaux, MD, of New Orleans, into the organization’s Hall of Fame at its annual meeting January 30, 2015, in Baton Rouge. The LSMS established a Hall of Fame to recognize its members who have contributed long-term meritorious service and valuable leadership to the organization.

“For years, Dr. Breaux has worked diligently on behalf of physicians and patients in our state,” said LSMS President Dr. Dolleen Licciardi. “Today we recognize his consistent leadership and dedicated service, in both elected and appointed positions, that uniquely contributed to the success of the LSMS.”

Dr. Breaux has been a member of the LSMS and the Orleans Parish Medical Society since 1976; and served as president of the LSMS in 2010-2011. He remains active at both the state and local levels, serving as a mentor for emerging physician leaders.

About Louisiana State Medical Society

Established in 1878, the Louisiana State Medical Society (LSMS) serves as the premier advocate for patients and physicians. The LSMS is the largest voluntary physician organization in the state and represents all specialties.
