FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Danielle Kennett Named International Professional Cleaner of The Year

DEC. 1, 2015 – O’Fallon, Missouri – Danielle Kennett, a cleaning technician and team captain at Marvelous Maids in O’Fallon, Missouri, has been named Professional Cleaner of the Year by the Association of Residential Cleaning Services International (ARCSI). Kennett accepted her prestigious award at ARCSI’s Annual Convention and Education Conference in Las Vegas on October 22, 2015.

Danielle, who started working for Marvelous Maids in April 2012, quickly moved up the ranks to running a team of her own, always with a positive attitude. Since then, she has become a trainer that successfully instills in new staff the same core values that she represents. According to Kathy Gage, the owner of Marvelous Maids, “She is a solid employee in every way! She demonstrates strong leadership in so many ways, such as leading a team, training a new staff member or implementing new policies.”

The Professional Cleaner of the Year Award is given annually by ARCSI, the only professional organization dedicated to the residential cleaning industry. The award recognizes one cleaning technician internationally that represents excellence, professionalism and integrity in the profession.

“The Professional Cleaner of the Year Award is incredibly prestigious, especially when you think about how many people are out there worldwide cleaning homes on a regular basis, “ said ARCSI CEO Ernest Hartong. “To recognize a single individual for their efforts, the trust they have built in their community and their commitment to professionalism is the heart of the Professional Cleaner of the Year Award and exactly what ARCSI stands for.”
