

Topics: Topics which are currently being discussed for the event. However, if you would like to make a presentation or to bring a poster, please contact us using the emails at the foot of this invitation. We need you to give a presentation title, 3 sentences about the presenter (biodata), and 3 sentences about the presentation content. Tentative topics include many from the following list

Overview of malnutrition in East Africa

Profiling most vulnerable households and impactful interventions in East Africa dry lands
The role of Amaranth in reducing malnutrition
The importance of traditional vegetables
Agricultural Processing for Commercialization of Amaranth
VICOBA & Safety Nets in drylands
Conservation agriculture
Production of Amaranth in drylands
Soap operas & other radio programming on nutrition
Advocacy for the orphans & vulnerable children
Introducing Amaranth to consumers – opportunities and challenges
Successful population education in drylands
Dryland biogas technologies
Sharing about the Enrich Projects
Women creating market pull for nutritious products in drylands
Tasty cooking with Amaranth
Underground grain stores/reducing post-harvest losses
Perennial Vegetables and indigenous nutrient dense greens

Measuring malnutrition

Changing mindsets related to nutrition
Green manure /cover crops for drylands
Integrating livestock feeding with Amaranth –the Ghanaian experience
The link between climate change and nutrition
Food security in conflict zones WVI Somalia
Drought resistant and palatable varieties of Amaranth
Community seedbanks to maximize plant-based nutrition
Rural poultry importance in drylands nutrition
School feeding programs and childrens' rights
Case study of Amaranth promotion in Tanzania
Kitchen gardens which reuse kitchen waste water
Appreciative Inquiry for successful drylands development
Moving from reliance to resilience, Empowered worldview
Water harvesting technologies
Scaling up small food processing in rural areas
Low-cost food drying technologies