Angela Edge from Stevens Institute of Technology Presented with NACCU's 2015 New Professional Award

Phoenix, AZ – April 1, 2015 – Angela Edge, Campus Card Business Manager from Stevens Institute of Technology, received the 2015 NACCU New Professional Award during the 22nd Annual NACCU Conference in New Orleans on March 11, 2015. Vince Roos from award sponsor U.S. Bank presented the award.

Angela Edge has been an outstanding performer in the relatively new Stevens Campus Card Program. She entered the position as Campus Card Office Manager in January 2013 and has been on fire ever since. Angela came from the finance office with a background in accounting but quickly absorbed and learned all she could about card services. She eagerly attended conferences (Blackboard and NACCU), participated in the mentor/mentee program through NACCU, participated in webinars, and joined numerous list serves all in an effort to give Stevens students the best possible card services it could offer. This year she received top honor on the Stevens campus for expanding the merchants in the Duckbills program and for implementing an "upload your photo" process which significantly increased the efficiency of the Orientation Check In process and significantly decreased the waiting and lines. Angela's passion and enthusiasm for the Campus Card Program and improving card services has been inspirational and encouraging to her co-workers, which was evidenced in their nomination of her.

NACCU congratulates Angela Edge for being the recipient of the 2015 NACCU New Professional Award.
