

LINDI HOLT

Biographical Information

Dr. Holt assumed the role of Paramedic Program Director in June of 2014 and as EMS Education Program Manager in September of 2014. She was appointed the St. Vincent College of Health Professions Dean of Operations in October 2015. Lindi completed her paramedic training in 1984 from Eastern Kentucky University, obtained an A.S. degree in Emergency Medical Care, and B.S. degree in Education. She attended University of Maryland Baltimore County (UMBC) and earned her M.S. in EMS Education in 1988. Dr. Holt graduated in 2006 from Capella University with her PhD in Education. She has served on the State of Indiana EMS Education Committee and as a member of the Board of Directors for the National EMS Educator's Credentialing Service (NEMSEC). She is an active member of NAEMSE and is a frequent presenter at State and National Conferences. Lindi serves as a site visitor for the CoAEMSP and ABHES, both accrediting organizations for EMS Programs.