

The M. Ellen Carpenter Financial Literacy Program
A joint project of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Massachusetts and the Boston Bar Association

2012-2013 Program Application

The United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Massachusetts and the Boston Bar Association sponsor a financial literacy education program for high school students. The program is designed for students in the senior class (although on occasion, if space permits, the program will consider a junior class.) The program consists of four modules led by volunteer lawyers and U.S. Bankruptcy Judges. Schools may choose to participate in all of the modules or choose to participate in a portion of the sessions. The modules include: Personal Finance and Budgeting, Using Credit and Credit Cards, Financing a Car, and Consequences, as described in the separate handout. Sessions will be conducted on-campus at high schools in late January through early April, 2013, except for the final session on Consequences which involves a field trip to the U.S. Bankruptcy Court.*

If you would like to have your school considered for participation in this program in Spring 2013, please provide the information requested below and return this application by NOVEMBER 16, 2012. Please note that participating schools must identify two contact people- a teacher and an administrative person (e.g. Asst. Headmaster, Program Director). We regret that the program can only accommodate a limited number of classes. Consequently, the program reserves the right to decline a request, or to limit the number of participating classes at a particular school.
