ANNUAL MEETING

CHICAGO

JULY 31 - AUGUST 4
2012

Dear Bar and Foundation Leaders:

We welcome you to Chicago for the annual meetings of the National Association of Bar Executives (NABE), the National Conference of Bar Presidents (NCBP), and the National Conference of Bar Foundations (NCBF), July 31 through August 4. This booklet contains a schedule and descriptions of our jointly sponsored programming, as well as those organized separately by our respective organizations. To view all meetings at-a-glance, please see pages 4-5.

NABE substantive programming starts on Wednesday, August 1, with the plenary session “Race for Relevance – 5 Radical Changes for Bar Associations.” Author and consultant Mary Byers will present five radical changes that will energize and reposition your association for better performance. Fifteen breakout sessions will follow through Thursday, August 2, and cover such topics as evaluating bar association activities, selecting the right social media tools, finding, training and managing bar staff, and much, much more. On Wednesday evening, NABE’s Kanan Yacht Fireworks cruise on Lake Michigan will provide ample time for bar executive colleagues to mix and mingle in a private setting. An additional plenary session on Thursday, featuring consultant and author Vernā Myers will focus on diversity and inclusion strategies for associations. Thursday programming will end with an optional workshop brought to you by the NABE State and Local/Specialty Bar Liaisons Forum. This workshop features a discussion about the practices and pitfalls of bar relations work.

Joint programming begins on Friday, August 3, with the plenary session “No Courts – No Justice - No Freedom,” a panel discussion about the integral role that courts and the judiciary play in our society. Panelists will provide an overview of what is being done in the bar community to gain support for court funding. Following the plenary, officers and staff from bars and foundations will attend two rounds of concurrent workshops sponsored by NCBP, NCBF and the Metropolitan Bar Caucus (MBC). Workshop topics include why women are leaving the legal profession; how metropolitan bars are coping with financial challenges posed by the current economic environment; engaging the legal community in the mission of the bar foundation; building sustainable funding; and many more.

Following the workshops and the NCBP/NABE/NCBF Joint Luncheon, staff and elected bar leaders will take part in a roundtable discussion about the future of the legal profession at “Building a Better Bar for Our Future.” The MBC will feature a town hall meeting with “Beer and Bull Session,” providing a venue for sharing issues of particular interest to metro area bars. NCBP’s Forum on Racial and Ethnic Diversity rounds out the afternoon with a session featuring the winners of the 2012 ABA Partnership Program Awards for innovative diversity related programming. Friday activities will end with an evening joint reception at the River East Art Center, a venue surrounded by a rotating collection of art by local Chicago artists and spectacular views of the Chicago River.

On the morning of Saturday, August 4, NCBP begins with breakfast and roundtables, and an address by ABA President-elect Laurel Bellows, and ends with a discussion on health and wellness strategies for busy leaders. NCBF will complete its Saturday programming with a show and tell session on event driven donor engagements and fundraising ideas. There also will be an optional late afternoon program sponsored by the ABA Task Force on Preservation of the Justice System, featuring findings of the Task Force and best practices on court funding.

We extend our appreciation to our sponsors. Please be sure to visit them during the meeting breaks to explore their services. We also thank the NABE, NCBP, NCBF and MBC program committees and boards for their efforts to make the annual meeting a success as well as our hosts in Chicago who have provided support and guidance.

Finally, thank you for your attendance. We hope that you enjoy the programming and all that Chicago and Illinois have to offer.

Sincerely,

Dana J. Collier Smith, NABE President

Frederic S. Ury, NCBP President

Stephen E. Chappellear, NCBF President

All events will take place at the Hyatt Regency, 151 East Wacker Drive, Chicago, IL 60601, (312) 565-1234 unless otherwise indicated.

Greetings from the Officers of the NABE, NCBP, and NCBF	1

Welcome and Plenary Session: Race for Relevance - 5 Radical Changes for Bar Associations (W)

Grand Ballroom B, Gold Level, East Tower

Increased competition, shrinking revenue, technology, higher member expectations and changing markets are all significant and permanent changes to an association structure that has gone virtually unchanged for over 100 years, and most organizations soldier on – they govern and communicate the same way and deliver the same services. Organizations must embrace new and shifting landscapes and change right along with them. But how? Based on the book with the same title, this thought-provoking program proposes five radical changes that will energize and reposition your association for better performance and includes case studies that cut across the spectrum of associations and bring theory to life, making it that much easier for change to happen.

INTRODUCTION

Helen D. McDonald, Providence, RI, NABE Program Committee Chair and Executive Director, Rhode Island Bar Association

SPEAKER

Mary Byers, Chatham, IL, Speaker, Author, & Consultant, Mary Byers, Inc.

10:00 A.M. - 11:00 A.M.

First Session of NABE Concurrent Track Programs

Track Program 1A: Less Is More - A Practical Approach to Evaluating Your Programs and Services (W)

Grand Ballroom B, Gold Level, East Tower

Do you feel like you're trying to do too much with too little? Adding but never subtracting? Join us for a look at associations that have successfully downsized their program offerings and increased their revenue in the process. Learn a step-by-step process for evaluating your own lineup of programs and services. Get a worksheet designed to help you move your leadership team through the process in a painless, objective way.

SPEAKER

Mary Byers, Chatham, IL, Speaker, Author, & Consultant, Mary Byers, Inc.

Track Program 1B: Social Media Narrowcasting

Columbus Hall KL, Gold Level, East Tower

Getting the word out about bar programs and activities, and filling seats at bar events, is the bread-and-butter of the bar communicator's work - and social media is your new best friend. As the amount and variety of social media tools have expanded, however, the question of how and when to use them is even more important. Learn how to select the right social media tool for each promotional effort from annual meetings to conferences and special events. In addition to Facebook and Twitter, explore how Pinterest is changing the social media landscape and discover how to get more (and the right) followers and likes in order to raise your bar's online profile.

PANELISTS

Danielle E. Boveland, New Orleans, LA, Communications Coordinator – Online Media, Louisiana State Bar Association

Carissa Long, Indianapolis, IN, Assistant Director of Communications, Indiana State Bar Association

Track Program 1C: Bar Associations & Law Schools – Our Members, Their Graduates

Columbus Hall AB, Gold Level, East Tower

Following the discussions at the NABE 2012 midyear meeting concerning law schools and bar associations, this session will be an interactive dialogue on what bar associations are doing or might be doing to address law school relationships and the new graduates. This dialogue will include a broad range of topics from curriculum and preparation for law practice, to how law schools and bar associations are and might be helping each other. The session will include a short presentation followed by roundtable facilitated topical discussions and subsequent reporting on ideas and suggestions.

MODERATOR

Paula Littlewood, Seattle, WA, Executive Director, Washington State Bar Association

11:00 A.M. - 11:30 A.M.

NABE Sponsor Networking Break

Grand Ballroom CD, Gold Level, East Tower

Thanks to our generous sponsors, NABE is able to offer quality educational programming for its members. Please stop by the exhibit hall to hear first hand from NABE sponsors about their resources and services. Have a beverage and say thanks to all our sponsors. Sponsor prizes will be raffled; you must be present in the sponsor break room to win.

11:30 A.M. - 12:30 P.M.

Second Session of NABE Concurrent Track Programs

Track Program 2A: Hot & Spicy "Recipes" for Every Palate - Top Projects & Ideas from Sections Far & Wide

Columbus Hall EF, Gold Level, East Tower

This session will "dish up" projects and ideas by and from sections from small to large bar associations. Tasty morsels from 4 key areas will be served: Pro Bono/Service Ideas; CLE Program Ideas; Networking Ideas; and Lawyers Helping Lawyers Ideas. Recipes for replicating these tasty tidbits will be shared. The program is geared from the most inexperienced to the most experienced palate.

MODERATOR

Maryann Williams, Indianapolis, IN, Director of Section Services, Indiana State Bar Association

PANELISTS

Terry Hill, Tallahassee, FL, Division Director-Programs, The Florida Bar
Charmy Medlin, Columbia, SC, Member Services Director, South Carolina Bar
Candace L. Tucker-Smith, Washington, DC, Director, Sections, The District of Columbia Bar

Track Program 2B: Managing Your Bar's Critical Tech Decisions Without Tearing Your Hair Out (W)

Grand Ballroom B, Gold Level, East Tower

Life as a bar executive means making lots of critical decisions that affect lots of people. Some of the thorniest and most complex of these decisions are those which concern our bar's technology - it's hard to know when to invest, where to cut costs, who to listen to, and how to keep a project from getting stuck in the mud. This practical session will feature a panel discussion on how to manage complicated technology decisions and handle the unexpected with aplomb.

Catherine Sanders Reach, Chicago, IL, Director, Law Practice Management, Chicago Bar Association

PANELISTS

Maya Engle, Charlotte, NC, Assistant Executive Director, Mecklenburg County Bar

Allan Head, Cary, NC, Executive Director, North Carolina Bar Association

Natalie Kelly, Atlanta, GA, Director, Law Practice Management Program

Lincoln Mead, Salt Lake City, UT, IT Director, Utah State Bar

Track Program 2C: Bar Leader Whisperer – Challenge Yourself to Effective Influence

Columbus Hall AB, Gold Level, East Tower

As a bar leader, you influence, communicate and build trusting relationships with your bar president and board of directors. How you deal effectively with disagreements through focusing on the mission of the association will determine the success of these relationships. Understanding the importance of coaching, mentoring, soliciting strategic feedback and active listening while developing action steps will move the organization toward continuous improvement. Learn effective techniques for developing a game plan for enhancing your personal investment and effectiveness as a bar leader while rethinking and improving your relationships with association leaders.

Third Session of NABE Concurrent Track Programs

Track Program 3A: Best Practices- Association/ Foundation Relationships (W)

Grand Ballroom B, Gold Level, East Tower

A bar foundation provides an opportunity for members to be philanthropic in the name of lawyers to benefit law-related purposes. This outward facing mission is also very good for the public image of the bar association. Some foundations can only be cost-effectively managed with the nurturance and full support of the bar association. If bar associations do nothing or do the wrong thing, those philanthropic dollars will go elsewhere.

Marion Smithberger, Columbus, OH, Executive Director, Columbus Bar Foundation

PANELISTS

Jane Curran, Orlando, FL, Executive Director, The Florida Bar Foundation

Robert Glaves, Chicago, IL, Executive Director, Chicago Bar Foundation

Track Program 3B: New and Re-New Issues for the Unified Bar

Columbus Hall EF, Gold Level, East Tower

Join the moderator and panelists for an interactive dialog discussing recent and ongoing concerns facing mandatory bar associations including governance, creative challenges to the mandatory bar, Keller compliance, attacks on funding, and other new and renewed mandatory bar challenges. Bring your own challenges to share with your colleagues.

MODERATOR

George Brown, Madison, WI, Executive Director, State Bar of Wisconsin

PANELISTS

Joe Conte, Albuquerque, NM, Executive Director, State Bar of New Mexico

Jeanine L. McCoy, Concord, NH, Executive Director, New Hampshire Bar Association

Jane Schoenike, Lincoln, NE, Executive Director, Nebraska State Bar Association

Track Program 3C: Overcoming Information Overload - Engaging Members in the Digital Age

Columbus Hall KL, Gold Level, East Tower

As technology and digital platforms continue to evolve, your members are being overloaded with communication. How do you leverage your print publication, e-newsletter, website, social media presence, and direct email marketing program to work in a digital age? Which platforms should you focus on, and what content really matters? Learn how one bar association crafted a strategy for increasing the value of its communications with members while focusing on the technology and platforms that will enable it to succeed.

PANELISTS

Julie Armstrong, Indianapolis, IN, Executive Director, Indianapolis Bar Association

James Burnes, Indianapolis, IN, Consultant, Digital Innovation Strategy Consulting

2:45 P.M. - 3:15 P.M.

Fourth Session of NABE Concurrent Track Programs

Track Program 4A: Cloudy With a Chance of Meatballs or Goodbye, Server Room!

Columbus Hall KL, Gold Level, East Tower

This is an entry-level session. Cloud computing means accessing software applications, data, and shared computing power on demand through the Internet. But why is it relevant to you? Cloud computing levels the technology playing field for nonprofits because it doesn't matter whether you have a sizeable budget or a shoestring budget. All you need is access to the Internet. So, what can you do in the cloud? Anything and everything - from email, websites, databases, and project management to snail mail, online storage of documents, voicemail, and more. BTW: To satisfy NABE's insatiable app-e-tite, we'll throw in a few minutes to discuss noteworthy apps for meetings, membership data, backups and more.

PANELISTS

Steve L. Dunn, Springfield, IL, Director, of Information Technology, Illinois State Bar Association

Catherine Sanders Reach, Chicago, IL, Director, Law Practice Management, Chicago Bar Association

Track Program 4B: Bar Staff, They Don't Grow on Trees! (W)

Grand Ballroom B, Gold Level, East Tower

This program outlines strategies to advertise, interview and train your best asset. Advertising - learn the tricks to preparing a good description of what you are looking for, an advertising strategy, screening resumes, and phone or other interviews. Interviewing - how to ask questions and what questions to ask to receive useful information. Coaching and mentoring - once you have selected your new staff member, help them to help you and your bar by providing a blueprint on what your association does and how this new member can jump in and be successful!

PANELISTS

Toria Emmas, Chicago, IL, Administrative Director, Chicago Bar Association

Christine Kennedy, Tigard, OR, Human Resources Director, Oregon State Bar

Track Program 4C: "Rethinking" CLE Programming's Role in Our Bar Associations

Columbus Hall AB, Gold Level, East Tower

How important is it to your association to provide educational programming? Is there a disconnect between the programs you want to offer and the resources available? Executive leaders will walk away with potential solutions and will hear real-life examples of how the ideas resonate within other associations. Those who attend will REthink their efforts as they consider how to: REplicate, REenergize, REveal, REward, RESpect, REfer, REview, and REfresh.

Plenary Session: Intentional Inclusion - Key to Member Retention and Recruitment. "Diversity is being invited to the party; inclusion is being asked to dance."
- Vernā Myers

Grand Ballroom B, Gold Level, East Tower

Join Vernā Myers, a nationally recognized expert on legal diversity and inclusion in the legal profession, as she presents practical steps that will show you how to build a more inclusive bar association. In these tough economic times, bar association leaders must focus not only on increasing the representation of diverse attorneys through recruitment, but also on finding ways to retain diverse members who sometimes have unique and compelling reasons that pull them away. Ms. Myers will identify these reasons and share ways that bar leaders can foster diverse and inclusive environments for association members as well as staff. This practical session will help bar leaders move forward from the "problem of diversity" to the "power of difference." Ms. Myers draws upon her 20 years of experience in advising legal organizations on recruitment and retention of diverse lawyers, which is also reflected in her new ABA book, Moving Diversity Forward: How to Go from Well-Meaning to Well-Doing (www.movingdiversityforward.com).

SPEAKER

Vernā Myers, Baltimore, MD, Diversity Management Consultant, Vernā Myers Consulting Group, LLC

Track Program 5B: How to Avoid Going from Bad to Worse Under the New Rules of Workplace Retaliation

Columbus Hall CD, Gold Level, East Tower

Have a bar association employee complaining about discrimination, wages, safety, etc? You now have to view decisions about that employee through an entirely different lens. This presentation is designed to help you look at employees through the "retaliation lens." Back by popular demand, New Orleans employment law attorney Kim Boyle will discuss the changing laws, oral complaints about wage and hour issues, third party retaliation complaints and retaliation for comments on social media.

SPEAKER

Kim M. Boyle, New Orleans, LA, Attorney, Phelps Dunbar LLC

Track Program 5C: Turning Lemons into Lemonade

Columbus Hall EF, Gold Level, East Tower

Consider strategies for dealing with lemons and creating positive change when circumstances throw you a curve ball. More about how to think about situations than war stories about what we did, this session will look at challenges as opportunities to better manage and govern your organization. We'll have audience participation and lots of interaction as we toss around solutions to scenarios that can happen to you.

Breakfast and Welcome

Grand Ballroom AB, Gold Level, East Tower

Please join us early as we help you meet your colleagues. The tables are designated by bar association type – state and local bars - and bar foundations, so select your appropriate group. First-time attendees will be joining their experienced bar leader mentors, so be sure to welcome them. At 8:15 a.m., NCBP President Ury will begin the meeting, introducing his fellow organization colleagues and our host city/state bar presidents. We will remain in the ballroom for the plenary. Breakfast tickets will be collected at the door so be sure to have with you all your event tickets for the day.

Plenary Session: No Courts - No Justice - No Freedom

Grand Ballroom AB, Gold Level, East Tower

This year's Law Day theme shone a spotlight on the integral role that courts and the judiciary play in our society. The funding challenges these past few years have required rethinking: how and who we partner with, what types of efficiencies we can implement within the judicial system, and how we effectively communicate the value of these essential functions. Our panelists will provide an overview of what's being done to gain support for court funding, examples from one state where the organized bar's relentless efforts educated the policy-makers and the electorate, and some messaging strategies for going forward in anticipation of continued fiscal shortfalls and fundamental challenges to a fair and impartial judiciary in an election year.

First Session of Joint Concurrent Workshops

Joint Workshop 1A - Partnering with Your Legislature

Columbus Hall AB, Gold Level, East Tower

Because their members are experienced in every discipline of the law, bar associations are in a unique position to help lawmakers to better understand the impact of legislative proposals and to make important contributions and recommendations before such proposals become law. Learn valuable tips on: working with legislators to enact laws that benefit the public and the administration of justice; being more effective in your advocacy; and raising the bar's profile with your legislators.

MODERATOR

William Weisenberg, Columbus, OH, Assistant Executive Director, Ohio State Bar Association, and Co-chair, ABA Task Force on the Preservation of the Justice System

PANELISTS

James Carney, Des Moines, IA, Lobbyist, The Iowa State Bar Association

Leah G. Johnson, Columbia, SC, Assistant Executive Director, South Carolina Bar, and Member, NABE Board of Directors

Phillip W. McCallum, Birmingham, AL, President, Alabama State Bar

Joint Workshop 2A - Stemming the Exodus of Women from the Profession: A Roadmap for Bar Associations

Columbus Hall CD, Gold Level, East Tower

While women represent nearly half of law graduates in the past 25 years, only 15% are law firm equity partners and 18% serve as chief legal officers for the Fortune 500. For women lawyers of color, their "invisible visibility" creates even more acute barriers. The most sobering statistic? Over 30% of women lawyers leave the profession at some point, many permanently. The significant departure of women from the profession, coupled with their increasingly non-linear career paths, presents many challenges and opportunities for bar associations and legal employers and underscores that the traditional law firm model must evolve and expand work options to both attract and retain talented lawyers. Join two much-acclaimed speakers in an engaging analysis of how the profession has failed to keep pace with the needs of its younger, and more female, members and what bar associations can and must do to spark evolutionary change in talent management in the profession.

Kathryn Grant Madigan, Binghamton, NY, Past President, New York State Bar Association, and Member, NCBP Program Committee

PANELISTS

Paulette Brown, Madison, NJ, Co-chair, Visible Invisibility Project of the ABA Commission on Women, and Past President, National Bar Association and the Association of Black Women Lawyers of New Jersey

Deborah Epstein Henry, Philadelphia, PA, Founder & President, Law & Reorder, A Division of Flex-Time Lawyers LLC

Joint Workshop 3A - Twitter 101: The Basics

Columbus Hall JJ, Gold Level, East Tower

Of all the social media tools, Twitter is the least used by attorneys. However, as a marketing tool, Twitter is a bullhorn to get your message out and it is really easy to use. All sorts of people are on Twitter – why aren't you? Come, learn the basics, the lingo, and see how you can promote your bar association, participate in discussions, and benefit from what Twitter has to offer.

SPEAKER

Catherine Sanders Reach, Chicago, IL, Director, Law Practice Management and Technology, Chicago Bar Association

Joint Workshop 4A - Coping with Financial Challenges Posed by the Current Economic Environment

Columbus Hall KL, Gold Level, East Tower

This panel discussion will focus on the lasting effects the current economic downturn and changes taking place in the legal industry are having on local and metropolitan bar associations and how they raise, invest, manage and spend their money. Local bar associations and bar foundations are now facing some tough financial issues and decisions. These include questions such as what do you do when your classic revenue streams (i.e., member dues and CLE) start to dry up? How do you find new creative ways to raise money for core programs like those that support pro bono? How can you maximize the resources you have through better investment and spending strategies? How do you determine the allocation of resources? This "new normal" has forced bar associations to make hard choices that include reduction of staff and elimination of some services. Investment decisions are being made from a defensive position, and future planning reflects this conservative financial picture. Our panel of experts will share their perspectives and advice on belt-tightening measures and prudent financial management practices. You are invited to join in an interactive discussion of the issues.

Joint Workshop 5A - Doing Well by Doing Good: How to Drive Enduring Loyalty that Delivers Results

Columbus Hall EF Gold Level, East Tower

At a time when bar associations are seeking innovative ways to retain, develop and grow membership, bar foundations provide a vehicle that ignites and fuels the three enduring traits for loyalty – trust, belonging and purpose – to help bar associations do well by doing good. Learn how bars can increase member value by leveraging the relationship with their foundation through profession-based affinity to increase member attraction, loyalty and retention.

Second Session of Joint Concurrent Workshops

Joint Workshop 1B - Global is Local: What You Should Know About Globalization and the U.S. Legal Profession

Columbus Hall CD, Gold Level, East Tower

A rapidly increasing percentage of U.S. lawyers are going out into the world, either physically or virtually, to provide legal services for clients across international borders. Join us for an overview of the opportunities and challenges that globalization presents for the U.S. legal profession and bar leaders. The program will highlight the experience of the State Bar of Georgia in adopting a regulatory regime to confront issues arising from globalization, cross-border practice and lawyer mobility.

PANELISTS

Rew Goodenow, Reno, NV, Past President, State Bar of Nevada, and NCBP Secretary

William P. Smith, Atlanta, GA, Ethics Counsel, State Bar of Georgia

Laurel Terry, Carlisle, PA, Professor of Law, Pennsylvania State University Dickinson School of Law

Joint Workshop 2B - Pipeline to the Profession

Columbus Hall AB, Gold Level, East Tower

Walk the walk - diversity pipeline projects you can use! Is your diversity plan all talk and no action? Get ideas and materials for successful programs for middle, high school and college students to put them on the path to the legal profession.

Joint Workshop 3B - Civics Education: Some Bar Association Efforts with Impact

Columbus Hall U, Gold Level, East Tower

In response to poor poll results of American civics aptitude, and increased emphasis on reading, math and science at the expense of social studies, bar associations and foundations have redoubled their civics education efforts to create programming that will engage our citizens, particularly our youth, in active learning about and participation in our democratic government. Hear about some of these programs and their results on civic engagement and understanding, as well as resources you can use.

PANELISTS

Bob Black, Beaumont, TX, Immediate Past President, State Bar of Texas

Hugh M. Fain, III, Richmond, VA, President, Virginia Bar Association

Mabel McKinney-Browning, Chicago, IL, Director, ABA Division for Public Education

Joint Workshop 4B - Finding and Capitalizing on the Talents and Resources of Future Metropolitan Bar Leaders

Columbus Hall KL, Gold Level, East Tower

Metropolitan bars have the blessing (and curse) of diversity of members - from large firms, small firms, solo practices, and public service, judiciary and government. When it comes to successful bar leadership and the cultivation of future bar leaders, how can the bar ensure the leadership ladder is representative of the scope of practice settings in the local legal community? How does the bar both support and leverage the practice setting and experience of the president? What are the practical challenges, for the bar and the bar president, associated with large firm v. solo v. public employment? How does the bar address those challenges to ensure continuity of purpose and leadership? Join this interactive session and hear about creative approaches to bar service and the cultivation of bar leaders from the perspective of presidents from large and solo/small firms and executive directors. Be prepared to share your experiences.

A Bar for All Ages: Building a Better Bar for our Future

Columbus Hall II, Gold Level, East Tower

The legal profession is in a very dynamic period: a boomer generation of attorneys nearing retirement or cutting back; a business model that changes daily; younger generations that are seeking greater career stability and satisfaction from the practice; high debt and low employment rates for graduates; smaller numbers entering the profession. And these are just a handful of issues for bar leaders to consider in anticipation of meeting member needs and expectations. The opening conversation between two national "trend-spotters" will set the stage for the ensuing roundtable discussions to identify "building blocks" to form a viable foundation for our bar associations as we continue to look forward.

10:30 A.M. - 11:30 A.M.Presidential "Fit": Maintaining Health and Wellness for You and Your Association

Are you fit to be bar president? We don't mean your character or dedication to the bar. We mean, are you physically and mentally ready for the rigors that you will face while in office and in the year following your term? No matter how busy your practice, the year as president can wear down even the most tireless. We can't create more time for you to exercise or eliminate the unique stresses you will face, but we can offer practical tips to help you avoid many of the physical and mental pitfalls of being a president, the year leading up to it and as you plan for your "re-entry." We also will include an interactive discussion of how bar associations can promote positive life style changes through member health and wellness programs and activities and showcase some of the work bar associations are doing in these areas. Share your own success stories and programs with other attendees, and bring families and friends who will help you stay on track.

METROPOLITAN BAR CAUCUS

The Metropolitan Bar Caucus (MBC) is a sub-group of the National Conference of Bar Presidents (NCBP) that seeks to address the interests and the concerns of major metropolitan bar associations throughout the United States. Established in 1979 as the National Caucus of Metropolitan Bar Leaders, the organization became the Metropolitan Bar Caucus in 1993. At annual and midyear meetings held in conjunction with the ABA and the NCBP, the MBC presents programs exploring a variety of topics including pro bono activities, diversity, membership, financial issues facing metropolitan bars, community involvement and recruitment of young lawyers to join and participate in metropolitan bars.

Breakfast and Welcome

Grand Ballroom AB, Gold Level, East Tower

Please join us early as we help you meet your colleagues – first-timers as well as many-timers! Find the National Conference of Bar Foundation tables, and get to know fellow bar foundation leaders from around the country. First-time attendees will be joining their experienced bar foundation mentors, so be sure to welcome them. At 8:15 a.m., NCBP President Ury will begin the meeting, introducing his fellow organization colleagues and our host city/state bar presidents. We will remain in the ballroom for the plenary. Breakfast tickets will be collected at the door so be sure to have with you all your event tickets for the day.

SPEAKERS

Frederic S. Ury, Fairfield, CT, President, National Conference of Bar Presidents

Dana Collier Smith, Denver, CO, President, National Association of Bar Executives

Stephen E. Chappelle, Columbus, OH, President, National Conference of Bar Foundations

John E. Thies, Urbana, IL, President, Illinois State Bar Association
Aurora Austriaco, Chicago, IL, President, Chicago Bar Association

8:45 A.M. - 9:35 A.M.

Plenary Session: No Courts - No Justice - No Freedom

Grand Ballroom AB, Gold Level, East Tower

This year's Law Day theme shone a spotlight on the integral role that courts and the judiciary play in our society. The funding challenges these past few years have required rethinking: how and who we partner with, what types of efficiencies we can implement within the judicial system, and how we effectively communicate the value of these essential functions. Our panelists will provide an overview of what's being done to gain support for court funding, examples from one state where the organized bar's relentless efforts educated the policy-makers and the electorate, and some messaging strategies for going forward in anticipation of continued fiscal shortfalls and fundamental challenges to a fair and impartial judiciary in an election year.

MODERATOR

Laurel G. Bellows, Chicago, IL, President-elect, American Bar Association and Past President, NCBP and Chicago Bar Association

PANELISTS

Richard P. Campbell, Boston, MA, President, Massachusetts Bar Association

Daniel J. Hall, Denver, CO, Vice President of Court Consulting Services, National Center for State Courts

Theodore B. Olson, Washington, DC, Co-chair, ABA Task Force on the Preservation of the Justice System

(For workshops 1A - 4A, please see NCBP section of this program booklet).

Joint Workshop 5A: Doing Well by Doing Good - How to Drive Enduring Loyalty that Delivers Results

Columbus Hall EF, Gold Level, East Tower

At a time when Bar Associations are seeking innovative ways to retain, develop and grow membership, Bar Foundations provide a vehicle that ignites and fuels the three enduring traits for loyalty – trust, belonging and purpose – to help Bar Associations do well by doing good. Learn how Bar Associations can increase member value by leveraging the relationship with their Bar Foundation through profession-based affinity to increase member attraction, loyalty and retention.

SPEAKER

Deborah Knupp, Chicago, IL, Partner, Akina Corporation

Sponsored by the National Conference of Bar Foundations

10:45 A.M. - 11:15 A.M.

NCBP Sponsor Appreciation and Networking Break

Grand Ballroom CD, Gold Level, East Tower

Take this opportunity to refill your coffee cup or have a cold beverage and learn about the products and services offered by our generous sponsors.

11:15 A.M. - 12:15 P.M.

Second Session of Joint Concurrent Workshops

(For workshops 1B – 4B, please see NCBP section of this program booklet).

Joint Workshop 5B: Engaging our Legal Community in the Mission of the Bar Foundation

Columbus Hall EF, Gold Level, East Tower

How, who and when a Bar Foundation engages people from throughout the legal community is central to developing supporters for their mission driven work. Hear about three unique efforts that are engaging different facets of the legal community in mutually beneficial ways -- from bar association members to firms, corporations and law-related businesses to law students.

PANELISTS

Alison Belfrage, Columbus, OH, Executive Director, Ohio State Bar Foundation

Jeanne Doran, Chicago, IL, Client Manager, LexisNexis and Chair, Partner Leadership Circle, Chicago Bar Foundation

Building Sustainable Funding

Columbus Hall AB, Gold Level, East Tower

Regardless of the size of your staff and operation, building sustainable, long-term giving is key to your growth. How do you get gifts year-after-year from both individuals and firms/sponsors? Whether you are fundraising for grant programs or building operating funds, this program with help give you a little breathing room and ideas on where your growth potential might be and give you the tools to help you raise more money.

PRESENTER

Nancy Young, Knoxville, TN, President, The Collaborative Center

3:10 P.M. - 4:10 P.M.

How To Reach Outside the Legal Community

Columbus Hall AB, Gold Level, East Tower

Does anyone in the larger, non-legal community know what your foundation does? Do they care? Would it help to get your name and mission out to the public? This session will address different ways to reach the outside community to educate them about your mission, gain support, new donors and sponsorships. It will focus on how to tell your stories to the non-attorney community and to develop working relationships, collaborations and partnerships that will put your foundation in the spotlight.

SPEAKER

Nancy Young, Knoxville, TN, President, The Collaborative Center

5:30 P.M. - 7:30 P.M.

NCBP/NABE/NCBF Joint Reception

River East Art Center, 435 E. Illinois Street (312) 321-1001

Enjoy the company of friends and colleagues in a venue surrounded by a rotating collection of art by local artists and an outdoor balcony providing views of the Chicago River. Steps away from Navy Pier and the Magnificent Mile, REAC is also walking distance from the Hyatt across the river. A reception ticket is included in the registration fee of NCBP registrants and NABE joint meeting registrants. Others may purchase tickets in advance for $100 at the NABE/NCBP/NCBF Registration Desk. Walking directions are available at the NABE/NCBP/NCBF registration desk.

Form 990 - More Than Just a Tax Document for Your Bar Foundation

Grand Ballroom D North, Gold Level, East Tower

In just 30 minutes, you will gain insights on how you can better leverage this critically important tax form to tell your foundation's story. In addition to being one of the most public documents your board reviews each year, the IRS form 990 offers you an opportunity to give your donors and potential supporters a better sense of how you are executing your mission and how you are holding yourselves accountable. Instead of just asking your accountant to "fill in the blanks," the form gives you and your board a chance to share with your most important audience the "why" and "how" behind your numbers.

Who's Watching Your Firm's 401(k)?

The American Bar Association Members/Northern Trust Collective Trust (the "Collective Trust") has filed a registration statement (including the prospectus therein (the "Prospectus")) with the Securities and Exchange Commission for the offering of Units representing pro rata beneficial interests in the collective investment funds established under the Collective Trust. The Collective Trust is a retirement program sponsored by the ABA Retirement Funds in which lawyers and law firms who are members or associates of the American Bar Association, most state and local bar associations and their employees and employees of certain organizations related to the practice of law are eligible to participate. Copies of the Prospectus may be obtained by calling (866) 812-1510, by visiting the website of the ABA Retirement Funds Program at www.abaretirement.com or by writing to ABA Retirement Funds, P.O. Box 5142, Boston, MA 02206-5142. This communication shall not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy, or a request of the recipient to indicate an interest in, Units of the Collective Trust, and is not a recommendation with respect to any of the collective investment funds established under the Collective Trust. Nor shall there be any sale of the Units of the Collective Trust in any state or other jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to the registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such state or other jurisdiction.
