

CHANGE IN LICENSE STATUS OF ACCREDITED PROGRAM

When the license status of an NECPA accredited program changes (other than licensed capacity), the program's most recent licensing study or information about the program's compliance status will be requested from the licensing department in the state in which the program is located.