

SCHOOL-AGE PROGRAMS POLICY

NECPA will accredit school-age programs that are a component of a licensed program serving primarily preschool children provided that the majority of children in the school-age program are eight years old or younger.