PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

FSG Leasing, Inc. is now FSG Capital, Inc.

Laurel, Maryland – February 25, 2014 - FSG Leasing, Inc. has formally changed its name to FSG Capital, Inc. to better reflect its full range of financial services and middle market product offerings.

The name change and rebranding of the organization has been an evolutionary process. Bruce J. Winter, founder and President of the organization, notes that “FSG Leasing has a long history of innovation, creativity and superior customer service. After twenty-three years of servicing the needs of middle market corporate clients, the exciting rebranding process and name change to FSG Capital, Inc. has helped the company to reflect upon the multiple capabilities and broad spectrum of solutions that the organization provides. The new name and corporate branding reinforces the values of the company and it captures the comprehensive and consultative business approach of FSG.”

Effective immediately, FSG Capital, Inc.’s company logo, website and company material will reflect the new corporate identity. The veteran team of FSG Capital, Inc. will continue to deliver exceptional financial solutions to assist its customers with complex business challenges. FSG Capital, Inc.’s financial products will continue to enhance profitability and strengthen the cash flow of middle market organizations.

About FSG Capital: FSG Capital, Inc. offers extensive experience in creating customized equipment loan and lease solutions for businesses nationwide, including straight debt financing, operating leases, capital leases, sale leasebacks, equipment lines of credit, debt consolidation, refinancing and progress payment funding.
