Item 1: Attachment Products Directory (APD): U-Factor Ratings Available

All Applied Film manufacturers shall apply a U-factor rating to new and currently certified Interior Applied Film product lines with the revised Interior label containing the U-factor rating placeholder.

On March 16, 2011, the APD tool was made available to the Inspection Agencies to process new Certification Authorization Reports (CAR) containing U-Factor ratings for Interior Applied Film product lines to the Applied Film Manufacturers who were given approval for U-Factor additions.

The newly published NFRC 700-2011_{E0A1} includes the revised Interior label, Figure B-4A, with the U-factor rating placeholder.
