

Graduate Studies

Complete Your MA Degree in Recreation & Leisure Studies with an Emphasis in Recreation Administration 100% Online in 1-Year

Academics, Challenge, Preparation for a Rewarding Career. The Master of Arts degree in Recreation & Leisure with an emphasis in Recreation Administration is a 30 credit hour online degree program offering thesis, scholarly project, and internship capstone options.

The program is designed to accommodate the academic needs of both full time graduate students and working professionals. The degree lends itself to many recreation-related areas of employment including, but not limited to:

- Recreation & Park Administration
- Commercial Recreation
- Outdoor Recreation
- Sport Programming & Athletics
- Collegiate Coaching

Benefits of graduate study and an advanced degree in Recreation include:

- Personal Growth
- Expanded Professional Opportunities
- Increased Earning Potential
- Increased Professional Recognition & Credibility

Benefits of graduate study at the University of Toledo include:

- No GRE Required with Minimum 2.7 Undergraduate GPA
- Full Time or Part Time Enrollment Options
- Rolling Admissions (Fall, Spring & Summer Semesters)
- Opportunity to Complete the Degree from the Comfort of Your Own Home
- Challenging Academic Courses
- Dedicated Faculty

For additional program information please visit: <http://www.utoledo.edu/hhs/rec-admin/> or contact Eric L. Longsdorf, Ph.D. at eric.longsdorf@utoledo.edu

Apply Now At: <http://www.utoledo.edu/graduate/>