

Pennsylvania Library Association's
Academy of Leadership Studies

2017 Leadership Development Programs

Leadership Academy

Sunday, June 4 to Wednesday, June 7 (3.5 days)

For Librarians With MLS/MLIS

Develop personal and professional leadership skills.

Members: $400 / Non-Members: $500

Nominations Accepted March 13 to April 10

Work with peers and mentors to explore what it means to be a leader and make the choice to be a leader in your library.

Participation requires a 1 year commitment to assigned PALS Group Project.

Participants must hold an appropriate degree from an American Library Association-accredited school at the time of nomination.

Featured Speaker:

David Bendekovic / The B.A. David Company www.badavid.com

All PaLA Chapters, Divisions & Roundtables are invited to nominate individuals to participate. Self-nominations also accepted.

More information at www.palibraries.org/?page=PA

This project is funded in part by a grant from the Institute of Museum and Library Services.