SHRM-Atlanta Announces New Board Members, Advisors and Key Volunteer Leaders

Includes HR Executives from Post Properties, Kennesaw State University & Travelers

ATLANTA (January 19, 2015) – SHRM-Atlanta, an affiliate of the Society for Human Resource Management, is announcing an impressive new slate of board members, advisors and volunteer leaders for 2016. New board members include: Vince Eugenio, Ph.D., HCS, CCMC, Post Properties, Inc.; Dan Stotz, Kennesaw State University; Lisa Hughes, SHRM-SCP, SPHR, GPHR, Nobis Works; and Jeanne Artime, SHRM-Atlanta. New board advisors include: Brad Cummings, Hospitality Staffing Solutions; Greg Hare, Ogletree Deakins; Teela Jackson, Talent Connections, LLC; and Randy Patterson, BlueLinx. Jose De La Cruz, SHRM-SCP, SPHR, Travelers, steps in as the new executive vice president of signature initiatives.

“Our newest members of the board and the volunteer leadership team add an incredible level of experience and insight to our governing teams,” remarks SHRM-Atlanta Board Chair Virginia Means. “We’re grateful to all who served in key roles in 2015, and are looking forward to leveraging our leaders’ boundless, collective expertise to continue to develop Atlanta-based HR leaders in 2016.”

SHRM-Atlanta’s volunteer leaders are integral to the organization’s success. The SHRM-Atlanta board provides counsel, guidance and oversight to the association’s CEO, president and president elect. They attend events throughout the year and suggest initiatives and programs to the president and executive vice presidents. The executive vice presidents focus on the quality of programming for the association.
