

STAT Distinguished Leadership in Science Award Rubric

Candidate:

Description:

Awarded to a non-teaching Administrator in EC-12 who is dedicated to the advancement of science education.

Required Materials:

- * Nomination form
- * Resume or curriculum vitae
- * a principal, vice principal, area superintendent, colleague, former student, and/or

Requirements:

- * A non-teaching Administrator in EC-12.

		4 Points		2 Points		0 Points
1	Materials submitted in required format	All materials were submitted correctly.		Most materials were submitted correctly.		Materials were not submitted correctly.
2	Contributions made to science education	Outstanding contributions made to science education is cited.		Contributions made to science education is cited.		No significant contributions cited.
3	initiative or program to facilitate partnerships with business and/or legislative initiations to advance science education.	Substantial community involvement in the science initiative or program was cited.		Community involvement in the science initiative or program was cited.		No significant community involvement in the science initiative or program was cited.
4	Efforts to advance science education in district and/or state	Extreme efforts were made to advance science education in the district and/or state.		Efforts were made to advance science education in district and/or state.		No significant effort was made to advance science education.
5	Contributions made in the areas of presenting at professional conferences, seminars and/or workshops or publishing articles in	Substantial contributions made in the areas of presenting at professional conferences,		Some contributions you made in the areas of presenting at professional conferences,		No significant evidence of contributions made in the areas of presenting at professional
6	Work reflects the mission and purpose of STAT	All work reflects the mission and purpose of STAT		Some work reflects the mission and purpose of STAT		Work does not reflect the mission and purpose of STAT
7	Contributing to STAT and other professional science organizationst	Substantial evidence of contributions to STAT and other professional organizations are cited.		A few examples of contributions to STAT and other professional organizations are cited.		No significant evidence of contributions to STAT or other professional contributions is cited.
		Column Total	0	Column Total	0	Column Total	0
						Candidate Total	0