SpeedNews 4th Annual
European Aerospace Raw Materials and Manufacturers
Supply Chain Conference

September 19, 2016 - Hôtel Palladia, Toulouse, France

AVIATION WEEK NETWORK

SpeedNews Conferences is pleased to announce that Mr. Robert Dewar, Vice President & General Manager, CSeries Aircraft Program of Bombardier Commercial Aircraft will be joining the speaker line-up for the 4th Annual European Aerospace Raw Materials & Manufacturers Supply Chain Conference, on September 19, 2016 in Toulouse, France.

Mr. Dewar will discuss materials and usage from an OEM's perspective.

Mr. Robert Dewar leads the teams responsible for the overall CSeries aircraft product development, design, and integration, as well as production, certification, delivery, quality, schedule and cost. Mr. Dewar has held several key positions in engineering and in various product development programs -- most recently as Vice President CSeries Integrated Product Development, having originally joined the CSeries aircraft program as Director of Product Definition at the very onset of the program in May, 2004. His role is key in ensuring customers' requirements and business case objectives are met. He began his aviation career in 1986 holding key positions over the years in both a product development capacity and sustaining program capacity for major aircraft manufacturers including Airbus Industries, Alenia, and Embraer.
