11th ANNUAL ARTICLING STUDENTS AND MASTERS' MOTIONS

Thursday, October 8, 2015

4:30 pm – 6:00 pm (Registration at 4:00 pm)

TLA Lawyers Lounge, 2nd floor, 361 University Avenue Courthouse

Professionalism is required in any civil matter, but is on public display to opposing counsel and the court when appearing on motions. This CPD program is a primer aimed at articling students as they begin arguing Masters' Motions and has lessons on professionalism, ethics and practice management throughout the program. Specific examples are cited below:

- Avoiding motions
- Civility in the courtroom
- Costs outlines and submissions
- Times for service issues
- Estimating time for argument, preparing the written materials/documents dos and don'ts
- How to prepare for a court appearance (including knowing the file, the motion, taking responsibility for the materials and preparing the oral argument)

Speakers: Master Joan Haberman, Superior Court of Justice
Master Andrew J. Graham, Superior Court of Justice
Master Donald Short, Superior Court of Justice

Moderator: Michael White, TLA Education Committee

To be followed by Wine & Cheese 6:00 pm – 7:00 pm, Courthouse Library

2nd ANNUAL DRAFTING WINNING MOTION MATERIALS

Wednesday, September 9, 2015

5:00 pm – 7:00 pm (Registration at 4:30 pm)

TLA Lawyers Lounge, 2nd floor, 361 University Avenue Courthouse

In this hands-on seminar you will learn how to prepare a winning motion record containing the evidentiary substance in the form that the Masters expect. With the guidance of qualified senior counsel, and input from several Masters, you will be taken step by step through a case study, during which you will learn how to draft a notice of motion and supporting evidence.

This program is an excellent opportunity for articling students and new calls to gain practical experience and to build a firm foundation for their advocacy practice.

Speakers: Master Joan Haberman, Superior Court of Justice
Master Andrew J. Graham, Superior Court of Justice
Master Donald Short, Superior Court of Justice

Total CPD = 2.0 Substantive Hours

Moderator: Marvin Huberman, Barrister, Mediator, Arbitrator
