

The Truth about Retirement for Baby Boomers

Tuesday, May 12, 2015

8:30 a.m. – 9:30 a.m. (Registration at 8:15 a.m.)

TLA Lawyers Lounge, 2nd Floor, 361 University Avenue Court House

Retirement isn't what it used to be. Many lawyers will choose to work well past 65, and this presentation will provide ideas about how to sustain lasting income, anticipate the hidden risks to cash flow, and offer planning concepts unique to law professional corporations. At the end of the presentation you'll have a better understanding of maximizing after-tax income, minimizing risk, and improving your financial peace of mind.

Speaker: Ben Kizemchuk is a Portfolio Manager & Investment Advisor with Altus Securities Inc. in Toronto. He specializes in financial planning and investment management for high net worth Canadian investors.

Read what people are saying about Ben:

“I have been working with Ben for 3 years. He is extremely professional, intelligent and helpful, and always has my interests in mind. He consistently checks up on me and is never difficult to reach. It is this personal touch that separates Ben from other Investment Advisors that I have used in the past.”

“Ben has been advising my family for several years. He has always provided high quality returns without taking excess risk and grows income at a remarkable rate. We have been continually impressed with his service and standards. His approach allows us to have true confidence in his advice. Working with Ben is a pleasure.”
