Wednesday, November 25, 2015

5:15 p.m. – 7:00 p.m. (Registration at 5:00 p.m.)

TLA Lawyers Lounge, 2nd Floor, 361 University Avenue Court House

Our expert panel of veteran lawyers and scholars has returned this year to again offer their insights into recent specific decisions by our top court. Our notable speakers will identify the latest significant developments in the areas of criminal, public and civil law. Hear about decisions on mandatory minimum sentences, when searches of cell phones incidental to arrest will be justified, an accused's right to a representative jury, physician-assisted dying, religious freedom of private denominational schools, the principle of the state's religious neutrality, federal money laundering legislation's attempt to force you to report suspicious transactions, the civil remedy for the Crown's Charter breach for non-disclosure not requiring proof of malice, and the prerequisites for enforcing a foreign judgment (US$9.51 billion). Get caught up! This enjoyable and popular program is informal and conversational. An extensive handout will not be provided.
