2010 TLA Conference to be Held March 17 – 19 in Memphis

Are you ready? The TLA Annual Conference, “Marketing Matters,” is just around the corner—March 17-19, 2010 in Memphis. Plan on attending one of the many interesting pre-conferences such as the One Book, One Conference with Cary Holladay, author of The Quick Change Artist: Stories, be entranced by General Session Speakers Bill Barnes & Gene Ambaum of Unshelved (www.unshelved.com), and relax by attending the All Conference Reception at the famed Stax Museum (www.stax-museum.com), featuring TLA models.

The Conference will be at the Hilton Memphis (939 Ridge Lake Boulevard, Memphis 38120). Book now to receive the best rates! If you reserve your room before February 16, 2010, your rate will be $112 per night (for Standard King, single or double; Standard 2 doubles, single or double). You will also receive free in-room internet access. Please use the code TL0315 (that’s a “zero,” not a capital letter “O”) to ensure this rate and free internet before February 16th. Hope to see you there!

Special Conference Events

General Session:

A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Library

Famous for finding humor in the absurd, Gene Ambaum and Bill Barnes, co-creators of the comic strip Unshelved, will highlight their inspiration and explain some of the “truths” behind the fiction. For more information on the duo, visit www.unshelved.com. Thursday, March 18, at 10:00 a.m. in the Southeast Ballroom.

Intellectual Freedom Breakfast

Kristin Pekoll has been a YA Librarian for seven years at the West Bend Community Memorial Library, West Bend, WI. Her library was recently awarded the Robert Downs Intellectual Freedom Award. Kristin will

ALA President Alire to Present

Dr. Camila Alire is Dean Emeritus at the University of New Mexico and Colorado State University. Camila received her doctorate in Higher Education Administration from the University of Northern Colorado and MLS from the University of Denver.
Camila currently is president of ALA and ALA/APA president. She is past-president (2005-06) of the Association for College and Research Libraries (ACRL) and also past-president of national REFORMA. Camila has co-authored books on library service to Latino communities; disaster planning and recovery; and emotional intelligent leadership. She is currently working on a book on academic librarianship. Camila was named by Hispanic Magazine one year as one of the 100 most influential Hispanics in the U.S. In “Advocating from the Library Frontlines,” she will discuss the importance of marketing and advocacy. Friday, March 19, at 10:30 a.m. in the Southeast Ballroom C.

Friends and Trustees Luncheon

A self-diagnosed serial entrepreneur, Mike McCloud knows very well the value (and sometimes hard knocks) of taking risks and building businesses.
Mike will speak regarding “To Cliché, or Not to Cliché” at the Trustees and Friends Luncheon, in the Hilton Memphis Ridgeland Room, Friday, March 19, at 12:30 p.m. Sponsored by the
