

Announcing the 2016 WHCLIST Award

The White House Conference on Library and Information Services Taskforce (WHCLIST) and the ALA Washington Office are calling for nominations for the 2016 WHCLIST Award. This award is granted to a non-librarian participant in National Library Legislative Day (NLLD). The winner receives a stipend of $300 and two free nights at the Liaison Hotel. This year, NLLD will be held on May 2-3 in Washington, D.C.

To qualify for the award, applicants should be:

- A library supporter (trustee, friend, supporter) and not a professional librarian.
- A first-time attendee of NLLD.

Application materials must be turned in no later than April 1, 2016.

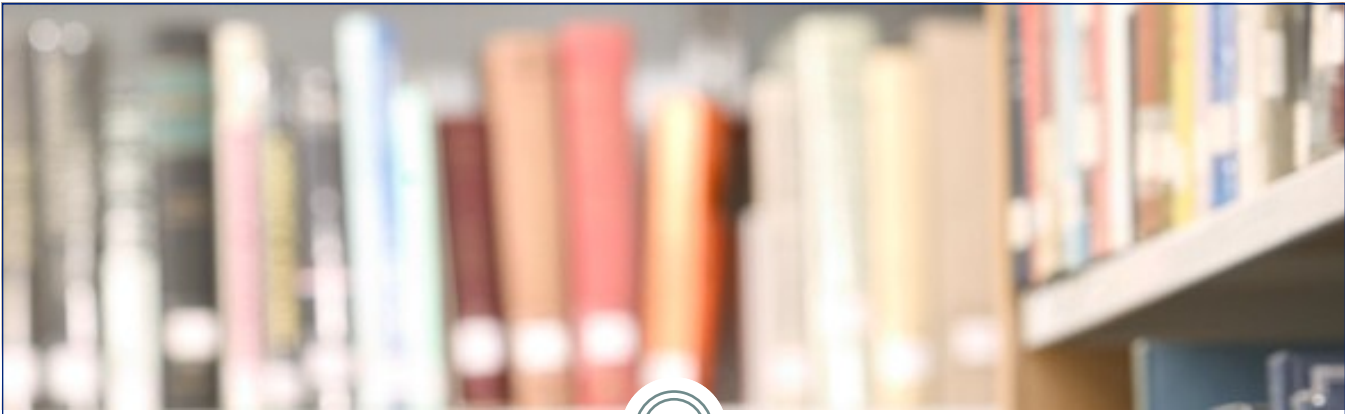

To apply for the WHCLIST award, please submit a completed NLLD registration form; a letter explaining why you should receive the award; and a letter of reference from a library director, school librarian, library board chair, Friends group chair, or other library representative to:
