

TALL IN TEXAS AWARD CRITERIA

Please read the following criteria before submitting the nomination form on the next page to the TTIA Office.

The Tall in Texas Award is given to an individual nominated from the membership for their outstanding contributions to travel and tourism and to TTIA.

Eligibility:

Must be a TTIA member or employed by a TTIA member organization.

Nomination Requirements:

Nominee should be an industry professional whose commitment to and influence upon travel and tourism has changed the face of the industry on a local, regional or state-wide level. The recipient's history of involvement with the Texas Travel Industry Association, experience and contributions to the Texas travel industry, and demeanor should exhibit the highest degree of professionalism, dedication and hospitality.

Additional Criteria for selection include:

- Lasting effect on industry
- Commitment and industry participation
- Demonstrated teamwork and leadership

Qualified Nominators:

TTIA member or employed by a TTIA member organization.

Nomination and Selection Details:

A nomination form must be received to be considered for this award. All nominees will be kept confidential. The nomination form and any supplemental information submitted by the nominator will be the only factors considered in the selection process. A selection committee will review those documents and choose the Tall in Texas recipient.

Nominations must be submitted on an official TTIA entry form with examples of the nominee's qualifications. Nominations should be sent under confidential cover to the TTIA office in Austin by mail, fax or email. Nominations must be submitted by deadline indicated on the website.

Award:

The Tall in Texas Award will be presented at the annual Texas Travel Summit conference.
