Why NPA? The National Parking Association is the preeminent association serving the parking industry. NPA provide access to quality education, research, and networking to advance your career.

Industry Research. NPA’s best in class research provides strategic information that allows members to focus their efforts on providing exceptional customer experiences and take advantage of emerging market trends.

Professional Development. The Certified Parking Professional program is a practical, comprehensive curriculum designed to assist you and your staff in performing your duties in an effective and professional manner. The CPP certification sets performance and service benchmarks and is the standard against which excellence and professionalism are judged.

Industry Leadership. NPA provides research and networking to assist parking industry leaders as they adapt to industry changes and trends. Through networking, research, and education NPA provides the tools and insights that help you formulate and implement strategy.

“Our operation is more efficient and we’re able to provide a higher level of service to our customers, thanks to NPA, which allows us to keep up with current trends in the parking industry. Each type of customer presents different challenges, and NPA helps us exceed their needs.”
