Vice President, Global Assessment Services

Christine Fuchs, Psy.D., is VP, Global Assessment Services for Korn Ferry, based in the Firm's New York office.

Ms. Fuchs oversees a global team of Psychologists who specialize in the administration and interpretation of Korn Ferry's proprietary assessment tool, including the continued development of job and culture profiles used to benchmark candidates. She is also responsible for maximizing the Firm's use of assessment on executive searches and providing additional quality control for all internal processes. Ms. Fuchs joined Korn Ferry in 2006 as a Search Assessment Specialist with a broad range of assessment, clinical, and consulting experience.

Over the last 20 years, Ms. Fuchs has had extensive assessment and consulting experience in a variety of settings, including profit and non-profit entities, municipal agencies, law enforcement and criminal justice agencies, hospital and clinic settings, school/university and private practice settings. Her professional experience includes teaching undergraduate courses at Baylor University.

Ms. Fuchs earned her doctor of psychology degree from Baylor University after completing her master's degree in forensic psychology at John Jay College of Criminal Justice. She is a licensed clinical psychologist.
