

Rebecca Bortolotti

Company - ConAgra Foods, Inc.

Title - Vice President and Chief Technology Counsel

Bio

Rebecca Bortolotti is vice president and Chief Technology Counsel, for ConAgra Foods, Inc., one of North America's leading food companies with brands such as Healthy Choice and Orville Redenbacher's. Over the last nearly nine years with ConAgra Foods, Rebecca has held a number of roles, each with increasing responsibility, including leading teams focused on technology and innovation-related matters, cyber-security, M&A, commercial transactions, and procurement activities. Rebecca came to ConAgra Foods after practicing law at Merchant & Gould, PC, with a focus on complex litigation and client counseling of all matters related to intellectual property. While at Merchant & Gould, Rebecca was named a Minnesota Rising Star. Prior to Merchant & Gould PC, Rebecca served as a judicial law clerk for the Honorable Lyle E. Strom, Senior U.S. District Court Judge. Rebecca was an adjunct professor at Creighton University School of Law, where she taught Legal Writing and Trademark Law. She also was an adjunct professor at William Mitchell College of Law, teaching Patent Litigation. Rebecca is admitted to the Nebraska and Minnesota bars, is admitted to practice before the United States Patent and Trademark Office. Rebecca is a board member of Saving Grace, a perishable food rescue and delivery non-profit, with a vision to feed the hungry by rescuing the heartland's bounty that would otherwise go to waste.